A Cityforum Policing Summit

Policing a perplexed society
– people, skills, training, transformation

Thursday 9 February 2017
Royal Over-Seas League, London SW1   Agenda

Principal sponsor   TASER | AXON   Co-sponsor   babcock trusted to deliver™

Chairmen	Ms Sara Thornton Chair National Police Chiefs' Council; Mr Stephen Otter Associate Cityforum & former Inspector for National and London Region HMIC; Ms Katy Bourne Police and Crime Commissioner Sussex & Chair Police ICT Company
0900-0910	Chaired and opened by: Ms Sara Thornton
0910-1050	Session One: Where are we now and where do we need to be?

What are the wicked problems we shall be facing?
Professor Martin Innes Director of the Universities' Police Science Institute Cardiff University
Mr Carl Miller Research Director Centre for the Analysis of Social Media, Demos

People and transformation
Mr Bob Bischof Chairman German-British Forum & Vice President German British Chamber of Industry & Commerce
Ms Helen King Principal elect St Anne's College, University of Oxford and former Assistant Commissioner Metropolitan Police Service
Mr Tom Newman Managing Director, Skills and Learning Babcock International Group

Followed by a round table discussion

1050-1105	Coffee
1105-1310	Session Two: Policing a perplexed society – what to do about the problems we face and will be facing?

Chaired and opening comments by: Mr Stephen Otter

Keynote address
The question of trust – what can be done about rebuilding it?
Baroness O'Neill of Bengarve BBC Reith Lecturer on Trust

A nation under stress - the political, social and economic outlook and consequences
Professor Eric Kaufmann Professor of Politics Birkbeck College, University of London

Stresses and frictions in a complex society – race, religion, ethnicity & nationality
Bishop Michael Nazir-Ali President Oxford Centre for Training, Research, Advocacy and Dialogue & former Bishop of Rochester

Thinking through the response to policing a perplexed society (with a look back at Sir Robert Mark's book)
Opening by Sir Denis O'Connor Radzinowicz Fellow University of Cambridge

Followed by a discussion including
Mr Craig Mackey Deputy Commissioner Metropolitan Police Service
Ms Millie Banerjee Interim Chair College of Policing
Mr Mike Ainsworth Director of London Services Stop Hate UK

1310-1410   Lunch

1410-1530   Session Three: The role of the transformation fund in securing the quality and utility of data and IT Service

Chaired and opening comments by: Ms Katy Bourne

Opening speeches
Ms Susan Morgan Senior Officer, The Quantified Society Information Programme Open Society Foundation

Mr Neil Roberts Chief Information Officer Surrey & Sussex Police & Chair National Police Technology Council

Followed by a conversation to explore How to achieve greater effect in key areas under pressure including
Mr Mark Rowley Assistant Commissioner for Specialist Operations Metropolitan Police Service
Mr Jeremy Habberley UK Sales Director Axon Public Safety UK with Professor Martin Innes & Mr Carl Miller

1530-1545   Tea

1545-1715   Session Four: Maximising the effect of transformation

Opening by Mr Martin Surl Police & Crime Commissioner Gloucestershire & a Director Police Reform & Transformation Board

Defining and delivering transformation and thinking about value for money
Ms Louise Bladen Director, Home Affairs Value for Money National Audit Office
&
Ms Charlette Holt-Taylor Head of Law Enforcement Transformation Unit Home Office

Transforming organisations and making collaboration work
Professor Bryan Edwards Centre for Digital Research & Industry Collaboration Science & Technology Facilities Council
&
Ms Millie Banerjee

Transformation – technology, human resources, trust and confidence
Mr Giles York Chief Constable Sussex Police

Followed by a round table discussion

Conclusions from Mr Martin Surl, Mr Giles York and Ms Katy Bourne

1715   Close