
A Cityforum Policing Round Table

Policing and its Partners

- data, technology, trust and effect

Monday 4 June, 2018

IBM, Upper Ground, London SE1

Agenda

Principal sponsor:

HITACHI
Inspire the Next

Exhibitor Sponsors:

COEUS SOFTWARE

BAE SYSTEMS
INSPIRED WORK

Hosted by:

IBM

Chaired by: Mr Neil Roberts Chair NPTC; CIO Surrey and Sussex &
Mr Nick Alston Chair, A Policing Institute for the Eastern Region Anglia Ruskin University

0930 Welcome: Ms Veronica Scott CEO Cityforum and Mr Andy Astbury Sales Director UK Public Sector IBM

0935 – 1115 Session one: Technology, data, trust and confidence – partnering to improve outcomes

Opened and chaired by
Mr Neil Roberts

The challenges for policing [title to be confirmed]
Mr Gavin Thomas President Chief Superintendents' Association

Impacts of technology - the challenges of information and disinformation
Professor Martin Innes Director of Crime and Security Research Institute Cardiff University

Policing, health and social care – improving the outcomes for vulnerable people
Ms Sarah Scott Director of Public Health Gloucestershire County Council

Followed by a round table discussion with Mr Tony Ellis Unified Governance Data Specialist IBM; Former CIO London Borough of Brent; and The Rt Rev Bishop Peter Selby Associate Cityforum

1115 – 1130 COFFEE

1130 – 1310 Session two: Understanding, using and sharing data – what progress is discernible? What is required to boost it?

Opened and chaired by
Mr Nick Alston

The challenges of data – is a new data model required?
Chief Superintendent Mr David Jackson OCU Commander Metropolitan Police Service

An NCA perspective – how can national and local data capabilities be better fused?
Deputy Director Helen Skelton Chief Data Officer NCA

An industry vision of 'data driven'
Mr Robert Leach Head of Public Sector UK & Ireland Hitachi Vantara

Individual case studies

Dr Vicki Harrington Director of Strategic Change and Performance Essex Police
Chief Fire Officer Lee Howell SRO, Office for Data Analytics Avon & Somerset Police
Detective Superintendent Steve Richardson Merseyside Police

Followed by a round table discussion

1310 – 1410 LUNCH

1410 – 1530 Session three: Advancing the cause of collaboration – avenues for progress – now to the next general election: technology, culture, communication, funding - how can we help police deliver better service to the public

Expectations from joint working– where can we get by 2025 and what is required?

Mr Stephen Webb Director Law Enforcement Programmes Home Office

&

Mr Wayne Parkes Director National Enabling Programmes NPCC

&

ACO Hacer Evans Director Digital Policing Portfolio Sussex Police

Making collaboration work in a difficult political climate

Ms Christina Dykes Associate Cityforum; former adviser to The Rt Hon Mr Dominic Grieve

Budget problems in local government and their effects

Ms Aileen Murphie Director DCLG and Local Government Value for Money NAO

Followed by a round table discussion opened by Ms Jen Housego Head of Digital Essex Police

1530 – 1545 TEA

1545 – 1715 Session four: Policing and effect – responding to the technology of the fourth industrial revolution and to the demands of a stressed society – opportunities and risks.

A Home Office vision

Mr David France Director of Police and Public Protection Technology (PPPT) Home Office

An introduction to AI and securing a climate of trust and confidence

Mr Lucas Borg Public Sector Watson Lead IBM

Preparing for the future – considerations in developing a data science capability

Mr Stephen Roberts Director Vigilant Research

A policing perspective

Assistant Chief Constable Richard Berry Communications Data Transition OSCT Home Office

Followed by a round table discussion with a comment from Mr Robert Leach

END