

Strengthening Cyber Resilience

– Networks and Information Systems (NIS) Directive and other major developments

Tuesday 22 May 2018
NCSC, Victoria St, London, SW1

Draft agenda

Co-Sponsor: SUREVINE

Lunch Sponsor: Perimeter Group

Hosted by:  National Cyber Security Centre
a part of GCHQ

Chairmen: Mr John Noble former Director of Incident Management NCSC and Professor Paul Cornish Associate Director Global Cyber Security Capacity Centre University of Oxford; Chief Strategist Cityforum

0900 - 0905 Welcome and Introduction: Ms Veronica Scott CEO Cityforum and NCSC

0905 – 1035 Session one: What is at stake? What is at risk? How do the authorities define their responsibilities?

Opening remarks from the Chair - Understanding risk

Professor Paul Cornish Associate Director Global Cyber Security Capacity Centre University of Oxford

What are the official responsibilities?

NCSC contributor to be identified on day

Issues for public sector organisations

Mr Nick Alston Chair Mid Essex Hospital Services NHS Trust

Followed by a round table discussion opened by Ms Sharon Barber Chief Security Officer Lloyds Banking Group and with a contribution from Mr Stuart Murdoch CEO & Founder Surevine

1035 – 1050 COFFEE

1050 – 1230 Session two: Regulation and compliance – obligations under the law

Opening address: The view of an official

Mr Stuart Peters Head, EU Cyber Security Regulatory Policy DCMS

A view from the Board

Ms Wendy Barnes Non-Executive Director Southern Water and Scottish Power Energy Networks

A legal viewpoint

Mr Andrew Moir Partner Herbert Smith Freehills

Followed by an extended round table discussion chaired by Mr John Noble including other regulators and practitioners invited to participate

Mr Dan Jeffery Head of Innovation and Delivery NHS Digital Data Security Centre

Mr Ben Lindgreen Head of Security Delivery UK Finance

Mr Robin Jones Head of Technology, Resilience & Cyber Financial Conduct Authority

Mr Anthony Lundrigan Chief Information Officer Norfolk and Norwich University Hospitals NHS FT

Speakers from NCSC (identified on day)

1230 – 1330 LUNCH

1330 – 1600 Session three: Maintaining cyber security and resilience in a world of exponential change

Keynote address: How will NCSC maintain the capability to keep ahead of exponential change?

Mr Ciaran Martin CEO National Cyber Security Centre

Keynote address: How is the US developing its approach to the delivery of cyber security and resilience?

Mr Rick Driggers Deputy Assistant Secretary, Office of Cybersecurity & Communications, Department of Homeland Security

Experience elsewhere in delivering quality resilience

Mr Lauri Luht Head of Department Estonia Information Systems Authority An industry viewpoint

Innovative thinking around people and skills

Dr Madeline Carr Associate Professor of International Relations & Cyber Security UCL

A professional services viewpoint

Mr Richard Horne Cyber Security Partner PwC

Followed by a round table discussion with keynote contributors and other panellists to be invited

Conclusions from Mr Lauri Luht, Mr Rick Driggers, Mr John Noble and Professor Paul Cornish

1600 TEA AND CLOSE
