
A Cityforum Round Table

Eleventh Cyber Security Summit

Monday 7th October 2019, Inmarsat, 99 City Rd, London EC1

Working Website Agenda

SME Co-Sponsor: SUREVINE

Hosted by: inmarsat

This is an initial draft agenda for a day long round table conducted under the Chatham House Rule and structured along the lines of short contributions followed by extended discussion at the end of each session. All session titles are provisional and the running order and contributors may change.

Opened by: Mr Marc Lee Chairman Cityforum
A Representative from Inmarsat

Chaired by: The Rt Hon Lord Campbell of Pittenweem National Security Strategy Joint Committee
Mr Mike Steinmetz Senior Adviser Cityforum; former State Cyber Security Officer and Homeland Security Adviser Rhode Island
Mr Robert Hannigan Former Director GCHQ

Opening Session: Securing effective collaboration in a deglobalising world

Keynote Address

Mr George Barnes Deputy Director National Security Agency (NSA)

A senior figure from NCSC

A leading figure from the security industry

Followed by a round table discussion

COFFEE

Session Two – Protecting the values of open, democratic systems – views on the most important priorities

The Rt Hon Dominic Grieve MP Chair Intelligence & Security Committee

Professor Heather Brooke Professor of Journalism City University, London

Mr Roger Taylor Chair Centre for Data Ethics and Innovation

Followed by a round table discussion with a leading figure from the security industry and Ms Lisa Kaess Associate Cityforum; Economist & Founder Feminomics

Pre lunch - guest speaker

Thinking about China

Ms Isabel Hilton CEO The China Dialogue Trust

Followed by a Q & A

LUNCH

Session Three – Optimizing cyber security and resilience in a hyper-innovative and interdependent world: Designing a whole system approach that ensures continuity of critical services

The views of the regulated

Mr Rob Shaw Deputy CEO NHS Digital

Mr Simon Dukes CEO PSNC

Mr Andrew Pallett Operation Control Systems Underground TFL

Mr Dan Evans Head of Cyber Security Vodafone UK

Representatives from regulated organisations (telecoms, energy, water, transport)

A stocktake on NIS

Mr Stuart Murdoch Founder & CEO Surevine

Lessons from banking

Mr Nick Strange Director, Supervisory Risk Specialists Bank of England

Competent authority view

Ms Nicole Keeley Head of Cyber Security Oversight Civil Aviation Authority (CAA)

Mr Mohammed Zumla NIS Competent Authority for Electricity & Gas Transmission and Distribution Lead OFGEM

Followed by a round table discussion with a representative from NCSC, DCMS, DFT and a leading figure from the security industry

TEA

Session Four – Organising nation states to meet a wide range of nefarious cyber threats: Protecting Western Society - standards, conventions, and institutions

Opened by Mr Carl Miller DEMOS and Author of 'The Death of the Gods: The New Global Power Grab'

Followed by contributions from:

Mr Rob Joyce Special US Liaison Officer US Embassy, London

Air Commodore Tim Neal-Hopes Head C4ISR & Cyber Joint Forces Command

A leading figure US Department of Defense

A senior figure UK Law Enforcement

Mr Jakub Kalenský Senior Fellow Atlantic Council and formerly of EU East StratCom Task Force

A Panellist from NCSC

Followed by a panel discussion with a leading figure from the security industry

Conclusions:

From the Chairs of day

CLOSE FOLLOWED BY A DRINKS RECEPTION