

A Cityforum Policing Series of virtual events

Riding the Waves of the Digital Revolution

Securing a National Digital Policing Strategy by 2025

Webinar Four: Delivering a successful Digital Policing Strategy by 2025 – risks and achievables in a difficult economic climate and with political and social uncertainty

Monday 14th June 2021 – 10:30 to 12:30 Live Event

Agenda

Prepared in consultation with:

Thought Leadership Sponsor:

Co-Sponsor & Report Sponsor:

SME Co-Sponsor:

Supporting Partners:

During this event, the audience will be able to observe the proceedings only and ask questions via the chat box.

Chaired by: Mr Giles York former Chief Constable Sussex Police and Associate Cityforum

10:30 – 11:30 SESSION ONE

Two short videos from the series SME Co-Sponsors Magnet Forensics and UM Labs

Welcome from Mr Marc Lee Chairman Cityforum

Opening contributions: Making a reality of the National Digital Policing Strategy

Commissioner Ian Dyson City of London Police; Co-chair DDaT; Chair IMORCC

Mr Stephen Mold Chair Police Digital Service; Police Fire and Crime Commissioner Northamptonshire

Followed by a 15 minute discussion with opening speakers

An industry assessment

Mr Allan Fairley UK Public Safety Managing Director Accenture

Policing, technology and the citizen

Mr Jay Stanley Senior Policy Analyst American Civil Liberties Union

Followed by a conversation between the Chair and Mr Wayne Parkes Chief Digital, Data & Technology Officer Police Digital Service

11:30 – 12:30 SESSION TWO

Panel discussion to be opened by Ms Alex Cummins Head of Innovation Law Enforcement Team Home Office and with concluding remarks from Mr Andrew Candlish Regional Manager UK Central Government & Justice Cisco and Mr Alex Bowen on behalf of the Police Digital Service

12:30 CLOSE

* Mr Nick Gargan, Cityforum Associate, has prepared a short paper on challenges arising in this Digital Policing Series. This is available on the Cityforum website.