

The Twelfth Cityforum Cyber Security Summit

A programme of webclaves and conclaves prepared in association with the National Security Agency and in partnership with Wilton Park

Building National and International Capacity to Recover from Catastrophic Events Thinking Through what Governments Should Do

Webinar: Criminality and Disorder, Terror and Disruption - Meeting the societal and economic threats

Tuesday 13th April 2021 - 12:00 to 16:00 BST (07:00 to 11:00 EDT) Live Event

Agenda

In partnership with

Wilton Park

Co-Sponsor

Raytheon
UK

SME Co Sponsor

SUREVINE

Among possible areas for the discussion:

Can we foresee what will face us in the future?

How should intelligence, security and law enforcement be involved when hostile actors exploit natural disasters, hazards and economic and other vulnerabilities to our detriment?

How can we be more effective in investigation and prosecution?

How can we best use private sector technology to improve performance?

How can we improve international collaboration among government and agencies?

PART ONE Security, Counter Terrorism and State Threats 12:00-13:55 BST (07:00-08:55 EDT)

Chaired by: Ms Mary Calam Associate Cityforum, former Director General of Crime and Policing Home Office

12:00 – 12:55

SESSION ONE

During this panel discussion, the audience will be 'muted' and will be invited to observe the proceedings only.

Welcome from Mr Marc Lee Chairman Cityforum

Introduction to the webinar

Ms Mary Calam

Keynote: Mr Rob Joyce Director National Security Agency (NSA) (an Agency assessment)

Sir Mark Rowley Former Assistant Commissioner Metropolitan Police: National Lead for Counter Terrorism Policing; member of the Commission for Countering Extremism (on understanding and responding to threats from terrorists and extremists)

Ms Kiersten Todt Managing Director Cyber Readiness Institute (on how we can manage convergent threats)

Mr Scott Borg Director US Cyber Consequences Unit (on weaponisation of critical national infrastructure and how it threatens us)

Mr Jos Leenheer Senior Coordinating Policy Advisor and Project Manager National Coordinator for Security and Counterterrorism, Ministry of Justice and Security in the Netherlands (on meeting the risks in the global, political and economic environment)

12:55 – 13:55 SESSION TWO

Discussion across the panel and with those in attendance to be opened by Mr Michael Steinmetz Senior US Adviser Cityforum; former Security Advisor to the Governor Rhode Island with a short comment on far right extremism from Mr George Selim Senior Vice President of Programs Anti-Defamation League (formerly of the White House)

13:55 – 14:05 BREAK

PART TWO Criminal Justice, Prosecution and Policing 14:05-16:00 BST (09:05-11:00 EDT)

Chaired by: Sir Craig Mackey Former Deputy Commissioner Metropolitan Police, author of The Independent Review of Serious and Organised Crime for the government

14:05 – 15:00 SESSION ONE

During this panel discussion, the audience will be 'muted' and will be invited to observe the proceedings only.

Welcome from Mr Marc Lee Chairman Cityforum

Opening the address – setting the scene
Sir Craig Mackey

Keynote: Mr Cyrus Vance Junior District Attorney Office of New York County Attorney (a US prosecutor's assessment)

Alderman Professor Michael Mainelli Sheriff of the City of London and Executive Chairman Z/Yen Group Limited (on integrity – the City and trust)

Mr John Carroll COO UK Serious Fraud Office (on ubiquitous fraud and how to combat it)

Professor Andrew Kakabadse Professor of Governance and Leadership Henley Business School (on risks in the global, political and economic environment)

Mr Peter Goodman former Chief Constable Derbyshire and NPCC Lead for Serious and Organised Crime (on responding to ransom demands and other threats)

Ms Helen Malcolm QC (an assessment of international collaboration in criminal justice)

15:05 – 16:00 SESSION TWO

Discussion across the panel and with those in attendance with a first comment by Mr Scott Borg Director US Cyber Consequences Unit

16:00 CLOSE